The U.S. Embassy in Islamabad is seeking an individual for the position of Procurement Supervisor in the Procurement and Contracting Unit, General Services Office.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION:

The Procurement Supervisor serves as a Locally Employed (LE) Staff supervisor of the GSO Procurement and Contracting Unit, which is responsible for procuring commodities and contracting services for the U.S. Mission in Pakistan - totaling over USD 20 million annually for Embassy Islamabad alone. Under the supervision of the General Services Officer (GSO)/Contracting Officer, s/he supervises 12 to 14 LE Staff employees in the Unit. Primary duties include continuous management responsibility for the procurement unit, procurement planning, determining priorities, and making the most efficient use of available resources.

A copy of the complete position description listing all duties and responsibilities is available in the Human Resources Office.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

NOTE: All applicants must address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item.

1. EDUCATION: Completion of university degree (14 years of education) in commerce or arts is required; or 12 years of education and two years of professional procurement work experience may be substituted for the university degree.

2. EXPERIENCE: Minimum seven years of progressively responsible, professional acquisition experience in procurement or related field, of which two years of supervisory experience is required.

3. LANGUAGE: Level IV (fluent) Reading/Writing/Speaking in English and Urdu is required. Individual must be capable of reading and understanding both USG and Pakistani regulations. Language skill may be tested.

4. KNOWLEDGE: Must have a good working knowledge of procurement and contracting procedures and practices. Must have a good knowledge of local market practices and of the capability of local suppliers. Must understand local pricing customs and practices. Knowledge of paper and electronic filing systems is required.

5. ABILITIES & SKILLS: Ability to effectively supervise and manage personnel is required. Familiarity with Microsoft Office applications, the internet, and industry-specific software and applications is required. Must have proficient oral and written communication skills as well as adept negotiation skills.

SELECTION PROCESS:

When equally qualified, U.S. Veterans will be given preference. Therefore, it is essential that the candidate address the required qualifications above in the application.

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA:

1. Management will consider nepotism/conflict of interest, budget and residency status in determining successful candidacy.
2. Current employees serving a probationary period are not eligible to apply.
3. Current employees with an Overall Summary Rating of Needs Improvement or Unsatisfactory on their most recent Employee Performance Report are not eligible to apply.
4. Applicants for the position must meet the required qualifications as advertised in the vacancy announcement.
5. Current employees who have voluntarily reassigned/promoted from one position to another are not eligible to apply for six months from the effective date of the reassignment/promotion.
6. Current employees who have received any job-related training are not eligible to apply in another section/agency for six months from the effective date of the training.
7. Candidates need to indicate on the Application for Employment if any family member is working in the U.S. Mission, Pakistan and, if so, in which section.
8. U. S. Mission Pakistan will not bear any travel expenses for testing, interviews, pre-employments clearances (if selected) or relocating for joining.
